by deleting all language after the caption and by substituting instead the following:

Whereas, after numerous meeting and hours of testimony, the joint committee to study narcotics found that the use and sale of illegal drugs is threatening the citizens of Tennessee like never before.

Whereas, approximately eighty percent (80%) of crimes committed in Tennessee are drug related.

Whereas, all points of attack on the ever-growing drug threat, from education to law enforcement, are currently ineffective.

Whereas, in light of manpower and monetary limitations, the investigation of illegal drugs in the state of Tennessee is not currently effective, Whereas, no single agency, bureau or division in the state focuses primarily on illegal drugs.

Whereas, at present, agents designated as narcotics agents within the Tennessee bureau of investigation are currently unable to focus primarily on the investigation of illegal drugs in the state of Tennessee;

Whereas, the intent of the General Assembly is to create a division of narcotics investigation within the Tennessee bureau of investigation, with the sole mission of investigating illegal drugs, working together with existing agencies to achieve this purpose, and reporting to the General Assembly on the needs, achievements, and overall effectiveness of the ongoing battle against drugs in Tennessee; now, therefore,

BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE:

SECTION 1. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 38-6-101, is amended by deleting the language in (a)(2) and substituting instead the following:

(a)(2) The bureau shall be divided into three (3) divisions, the criminal investigation division, the forensic services division, and the narcotics investigation division, and the director shall have full control over all divisions.

SECTION 2. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 38-6-102, is amended by deleting the following language from the first sentence of the subsection:

“violations of the Tennessee narcotics laws or laws relating to barbital, amphetamine, desoxyephedrine, or compounds or mixtures thereof, including all derivatives of phenoethylamine or any of the salts thereof which have a stimulating effect on the central nervous system, and barbiturates and its derivatives,”.

SECTION 3. Tennessee Code Annotated, Title 38, Chapter 6, is amended by adding the following as new sections to be designated as follows:

Section 38-6-201. There is hereby created the narcotics investigation division within the Tennessee bureau of investigation.

Section 38-6-202. The mission of the narcotics investigation division shall be to investigate, gather evidence and assist in the prosecution of criminal offenses involving controlled substances, narcotics, and other drugs.

The narcotics investigation division shall have original jurisdiction over the investigation of all drugs.

the narcotics investigation division, to such number as may be found feasible and necessary.

(b) The assistant director and agents appointed shall be citizens of the United States and the state of Tennessee, and of good moral character. The agents shall have satisfactorily completed a prescribed course of study at a school operated by the federal drug enforcement agency, U.S. Justice Department. The assistant director shall also be required to complete a prescribed course of study at a school operated by the federal drug enforcement agency, U.S. Justice Department.

(c) The narcotics investigation division may enter into agreements with bureaus, departments, or judicial drug task forces within the state of Tennessee or of other states or of the United States for the exchange or temporary assignment of agents for special undercover assignments and for performance of specific duties. The assistant director, at the direction of the director of the Tennessee bureau of investigation, is hereby authorized to assign agents of the bureau to such duty and to request and accept agents from such other bureaus or departments for such duty.

(d) At any time during the employment with the narcotics investigation division, the assistant director, at the direction of the director of the Tennessee bureau of investigation, may request an agent, employee, or other person
